

Technical Assistance Services 2018

Our Technical Assistance is aimed towards schools that look for more financial sustainability and to include teaching 21st century skills through entrepreneurship education and for organisations that have an interest in both of these fields. All packages are personalised according to the customer's needs.

Business Development

Introduction to the School-Business Model – Theory and Practice

Vision and Mission setting

Resource Assessment

Business Idea Generation

Feasibility Assessment

Profitability Assessment

Market research (training, implementation and analysis)

Competitor Analysis

Human Resource structuring

Marketing plan

Risk analysis

Action Planning

Budgeting

Business Plan writing (also available through distance learning)

Business Implementation

Business management committee setup

Structuring student involvement

HR management

Health and Safety

Financial Management

Marketing

Health and Safety

Customer Service and Sales

Business review process

Evaluating Success

Entrepreneurship Education

Employer needs analysis

Skills theory: soft skills, business skills, technical skills

Tracking student learning through the business units

Whole-school assessment

Business integration with the curriculum

TAMTF Entrepreneurship Curriculum (Primary/Secondary)

Interactive Teaching Methodologies

Student Business Portfolio

Work Readiness

Private sector network development
Alumni network development
Funder/investor network development
Graduate tracking
Student business incubator
Internship/work placements

Sustainability

School Business sustainability and diversification
The Teach A Man To Fish members' network
The School Enterprise Challenge
Accreditation
Developing the school into a Centre of Excellence